Data Protection/Privacy Policy

1. The association collects, processes and uses personal data of members using data processing systems to fulfil the purposes and tasks listed in the Articles of Association (e.g. name and address, bank details, phone numbers and email addresses, date of birth, licences and functions within the association).
2. By virtue of their membership and the following acceptance of the Articles of Association, members accept the collection, processing (storage, alteration and transmission) and usage of their personal data according to the fulfilment of the purposes and tasks listed in the Articles of Association. Uses of data for other purposes (e.g. data vending) is not admissible.
3. By virtue of their membership and the following acceptance of the Articles of Association, members further accept the publication of pictures and names in print- and tele-media as well as electronic media, as long as it complies with the purposes and tasks specified in the Articles of Association.
4. Every member has the right to information about their stored personal data, the receivers of their data and the purpose of their storage, as well as alteration of the data in case of their incorrectness and deletion or blocking of their data in accordance with the legal regulations of the Bundes-datenschutzgesetz (= German data protection law).

I have read and taken note of this information, provided in accordance with articles 12 – 13 of the GDPR, and hereby declare my consent:
